FINDINGS:
After reviewing the Petition and hearing the evidence and testimony of Petitioner, the Court finds

1. The people protected by this Order are:
   - ☑ Petitioner
   - ☐ Minor children listed in caption of this Order
   - ☐ Other Protected Persons listed on page 1 of this Order

2. The Petitioner has the following relationship to Respondent:

☐ Boyfriend / Girlfriend / Dating Relationship (including ex) (BG)	☐ Spouse (SE)	☐ Ex-Spouse (XS)
☐ Has Children with Respondent (never married to Respondent) (CC)	☑ Sharing or Shared Home (CS)	☑ Child (CH)
☐ Parent (PA)	☐ Brother / Sister / Sibling (SB)	☐ Other Family Member (OF)
☐ Other – Petitioner not Related to Respondent (OT)	☐ In-law (IL)	☐ Personal Caregiver to Disabled Petitioner (PC)
☐ Petitioner with Disability receives care from respondent (PD)	☐ Personal Assistant of Petitioner (PR)	☐ Grandchild (GC)
☐ Grandparent (GP)	☐ Step-Child (SC)	☐ Step-Brother / Step-Sister / Step-Sibling (SS)
☐ Prospective or Adoptive Child has Family or Household Relationship with Respondent	☐ Foster Child has Family or Household Relationship with Respondent	☐ Legally Appointed Guardian or Custodian of a Child who has a Family or Household Relationship with Respondent
☐ Step-Parent (SP)

3. ☐ Respondent HAS received actual notice of Petitioner's request for an Order of Protection.
   ☑ Respondent HAS NOT received notice of Petitioner's request for an Order of Protection
   ☑ Petitioner is present in person in court. ☑ Represented by: KCSAO
   Name of Lawyer

4. ☑ Respondent is not present in court.
   ☐ Respondent is present in person in court. ☐ Represented by: _____
   Name of Lawyer

5. ☑ Good cause exists to grant these remedies in this Order even though Respondent has not received notice Because:
   - ☑ a. If Respondent were given prior or greater notice, it is likely that the harm that the remedies in this Order are intended to prevent would occur (R01, R03, R05, R08, R09, R11, R14, R15, and R17).
   - ☐ b. If Respondent were given prior or greater notice, the immediate danger of further abuse outweighs the hardships to Respondent of an Order granting exclusive possession of the residence (R02).
   - ☐ c. If Respondent were given prior or greater notice, it is likely that personal property would be disposed of improperly, or Petitioner has an immediate and pressing need for possession of that property.

6. Other Relevant Factors and Findings (check all that apply):
   - ☐ An Order of Protection has previously been entered in this case or in another case in which any party, or a child of any party has been named as either Respondent or Petitioner.
   - ☐ An abused person is unable to bring this Petition on their own behalf due to age, health, disability, or inaccessibility.
   - ☐ The Petition has been filed on behalf of a high-risk adult with disabilities who has been abused, neglected, or exploited by a family or household member.
   - ☐ There is reason to believe Respondent is (check all that apply): ☐ armed ☐ dangerous ☐ suicidal

7. ☐ Civil Cases: In granting the remedies in this Order, the Court has considered all relevant factors, including: the nature, severity, pattern, and consequences of Respondent's past abuse, neglect, or exploitation of Petitioner or any family/household member, including Respondent's concealment of their location in order to evade service of notice, and the likelihood of danger of future abuse, neglect, or exploitation to Petitioner or any member of Petitioner's or Respondent's family or household; and the danger that any minor child(ren) will be abused, removed from the jurisdiction, improperly concealed within the State, or improperly separated from the child(ren)'s primary caretaker. The court finds that:
   - The Court has jurisdiction over Petitioner, Respondent, minor children and other Protected Persons.
   - Venue is proper.
   - Respondent has abused Petitioner and/or the children identified as protected persons in Section 5 on page 4 and / or the Protected Persons listed on Page 1 of this Order.
   - The actions of Respondent will likely cause irreparable harm or continued abuse unless they are prohibited.
   - It is necessary to grant the requested relief in this Order to protect Petitioner or other abused persons.

8. ☑ Criminal Cases: The Court is entering this Order based on the following prima facie evidence:
   - ☑ an information, complaint, indictment or delinquency petition, charging a crime of domestic violence or charging an attempt to commit a crime of domestic violence; OR
   - ☐ an adjudication of delinquency, a finding of guilt based upon a plea, or a finding of guilt after a trial for a crime of domestic battery; OR
   - ☐ any disposition order issued under Section 5-710 of the Juvenile Court Act of 1987, the imposition of supervision, conditional discharge, probation, periodic imprisonment, parole, aftercare release, or mandatory supervised release for a crime of domestic violence or an attempt to commit a crime of domestic violence, or imprisonment in conjunction with a bond forfeiture warrant; OR
   - ☐ the entry of a protective order in a separate civil case brought by Petitioner against Respondent.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS ORDER OF PROTECTION

TO BOTH PARTIES: This Order CANNOT BE CHANGED OR VACATED unless you have a hearing. To have a hearing, Petitioner or Respondent must do the following:

1. File a written motion with the Circuit Clerk that lists the reasons why you want to change or vacate this Order;
2. Get a time for the hearing from the Circuit Clerk; AND
3. Provide the other party with a copy of your motion and notify them in writing of the time and place of the hearing.

TO RESPONDENT: The Court has granted this Order. If you do not obey this Order, you could be arrested and charged with a crime.

- Petitioner cannot give you legal permission to change this Order. Only the Court can change this Order. If you have contact with Petitioner that is prohibited by this Order, you may be arrested.
- If you and Petitioner want to have contact with each other again, you must ask the Court to modify or dismiss this Order of Protection.
- Unless the Court changes or dismisses this Order, you can be arrested for violating this Order of Protection.

You have notice that Petitioner has asked for an Order of Protection. You must appear in court on the date in this order if you want to try to prevent the entry of a long-term Order of Protection. If you do not, a l*ong-term Order of Protection* may be issued against you.

If you want to contest the Short-Term Order of Protection you must:

Emergency Order of Protection (Civil Case)	Ex parte Protective Order (Criminal Case)
• File a motion with the court stating: 1) you did not receive prior notice, and 2) you have a valid defense to the Order, OR 3) the Order, or any of its remedies, was not authorized under the law.	• File a written notice with the court stating You have a meritorious (valid) defense. • Written notice must include an Affidavit providing the evidence of your meritorious (valid) defense. You must bring this evidence to the hearing.

Any knowing violation of an Order of Protection forbidding physical abuse, neglect, exploitation, harassment, intimidation, interference with personal liberty, willful deprivation, or entering or remaining present at specified places when any Protected Persons are present, or granting exclusive possession of the residence or household or granting a stay away order is a Class A misdemeanor. Grants of exclusive possession of the residence or household shall constitute notice forbidding trespass to land. Any knowing violation of an order awarding parental responsibility (formerly custody) or care of a child or prohibiting removal or concealment of a child may be a Class 4 felony. Any willful violation of any order contempt of court. Any violation may result in fine or imprisonment.

TO PETITIONER: You cannot change the terms of this Order by your words or actions.

- If the Court has ordered no contact or given you sole possession of the residence, only the Court can allow the Respondent to contact you or return to the residence.
- If you want to have contact with the Respondent again, you MUST ask the Court, in a written motion to change vacate this Order of Protection.
- If you wish to ask the court for a Plenary Order of Protection which could be in force for up to two years, you MUST APPEAR in court on the date set for a hearing, which is listed on page 1 of this Order.

TO PARENTS OR GUARDIANS OF MINOR RESPONDENTS: The Court may hold you in contempt of court if a minor respondent in your care violates this Order and you have helped, encouraged, or directed the minor to do so.

NOTICE ABOUT ENFORCEMENT:

This Order of Protection is enforceable, even without registration, in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, tribal lands, and the U.S. Territories pursuant to the Violence Against Women Act (18 U.S.C. § 2265), provided notice this Order of Protection has been provided to the Respondent. Violating this Order of Protection may subject the Respondent to state and/or federal charges and punishment. 18 U.S.C. §§ 2261-2262. This Order is directed to the Respondent. Except under accountability circumstances, which should be assessed by the Attorney, Petitioner cannot be guilty of violation of an Order of Protection.

DEFINITION OF TERMS USED IN THIS ORDER

These definitions are incorporated in and made a part of the Order to which they are attached.

1. Abuse: "Abuse" means physical abuse, harassment, intimidation of a dependent, interference with personal liberty, or willful deprivation but does not Include reasonable direction of a minor child by a parent or person in loco parentis.
2. Adult with Disabilities: "Adult with Disabilities" means an elder adult with disabilities or a high-risk adult with disabilities. A person may be an adult with disabilities for purposes of this Act even though he or she has never been adjudicated an incompetent adult. However, no court proceeding may be initiated or continued on behalf of an adult with disabilities over that adult's objection, unless such proceeding is approved by his or her legal guardian, if any.

3. Elder Adult with Disabilities: "Elder adult with disabilities" means an adult prevented by advanced age from taking appropriate action to protect himself herself from abuse by a family or household member.
4. Exploitation: "Exploitation" means the illegal, including tortious, use of a high-risk adult with disabilities or of the assets or resources of a high-risk adult with disabilities. Exploitation includes, but is not limited to, the misappropriation of assets or resources of a high-risk adult with disabilities by undue influence, by breach of a fiduciary relationship, by fraud, deception, or extortion, or the use of such assets or resources in a manner contrary to law.
5. Family or Household Members: Include spouses, former spouses, parents, children, stepchildren and other persons related by blood or by present or marriage, persons who share or formerly shared a common dwelling, persons who have or allegedly have a child in common, persons who share or allegedly share a blood relationship through a child, persons who have or have had a dating or engagement relationship, persons with disabilities and their assistants, and caregivers as defined in Section 12-4.4a of the Criminal Code of 2012. For purposes of this paragraph, neither a casual acquaintanceship nor ordinary fraternization between two individuals in business or social contexts shall be deemed to constitute a dating relationship. In the case of a high-risk adult with disabilities, "family or household members" includes any person who has the responsibility for a high-risk adult as a result of a family relationship or who has assumed responsibility for all or a portion of the care of a high-risk adult with disabilities voluntarily, or by express or implied contract, or by court order.
6. Harassment: "Harassment" means knowing conduct which is not necessary to accomplish a purpose that is reasonable under the circumstances, would cause a reasonable person emotional distress, and does cause emotional distress to Petitioner. Unless the presumption is rebutted by a preponderance of the evidence, the following types of conduct shall be presumed to cause emotional distress:
   a. creating a disturbance at Petitioner's place of employment or school; or
   b. repeatedly telephoning Petitioner's place of employment, home or residence; or
   c. repeatedly following Petitioner about in a public place or places; or
   d. repeatedly keeping Petitioner under surveillance by remaining present outside his or her home, school, place of employment, vehicle or other place occupied by Petitioner or by peering in Petitioner's windows; or
   e. improperly concealing a minor child from Petitioner, repeatedly threatening to improperly remove a minor child of Petitioner's from the jurisdiction or from the physical care of Petitioner, repeatedly threatening to conceal a minor child from Petitioner, or making a single such threat following an actual or attempted improper removal or concealment, unless Respondent was fleeing an incident or pattern of domestic violence; or
   f. threatening physical force, confinement, or restraint on one or more occasions.
7. High-risk Adult with Disabilities: "High-risk adult with disabilities" means a person aged 18 or over whose physical or mental disability impairs his or her ability to seek or obtain protection from abuse, neglect, or exploitation.
8. Interference with Personal Liberty: "Interference with personal liberty" means committing or threatening physical abuse, harassment, intimidation, or willful deprivation so as to compel another to engage in conduct from which she or he has a right to abstain or to refrain from conduct in which she or he has a right to engage.
9. Intimidation of a Dependent: "Intimidation of a dependent" means subjecting a person who is dependent because of age, health, or disability to participation in or the witnessing of: physical force against another or physical confinement or restraint of another which constitutes physical abuse as defined in this Act, regardless of whether the abused person is a family or household member.
10. Neglect: "Neglect" means the failure to exercise that degree of care toward a high-risk adult with disabilities which a reasonable person would exercise under the circumstances and includes but is not limited to:
    a. the failure to take reasonable steps to protect a high-risk adult with disabilities from acts of abuse; or
    b. the repeated, careless imposition of unreasonable confinement; or
    c. the failure to provide food, shelter, clothing, and personal hygiene to a high-risk adult with disabilities who requires such assistance; or
    d. the failure to provide medical and rehabilitative care for the physical and mental health needs of a high-risk adult with disabilities; or
    e. the failure to protect a high-risk adult with disabilities from health and safety hazards.

    Nothing in this definition shall be construed to impose a requirement that assistance be provided to a high-risk adult with disabilities over his or her objection in the absence of a court order, nor to create any new affirmative duty to provide support to a high-risk adult with disabilities.
11. Petitioner: "Petitioner" may mean not only any named petitioner for the order of protection and any named victim of abuse on whose behalf the petition is brought, but also any other person protected by this Act.
12. Physical Abuse: "Physical abuse" includes sexual abuse and means any of the following:
    a. knowing or reckless use of physical force, confinement or restraint; or
    b. knowing, repeated and unnecessary sleep deprivation; or
    c. knowing or reckless conduct which creates an immediate risk of physical harm.
13. Stalking: "Stalking" means knowingly and without lawful justification, on at least two (2) separate occasions, following another person or placing the person under surveillance or any combination thereof and:
    a. at any time transmitting a threat of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint, and the threat is directed towards that person or a family member of that person; or
    b. placing that person in reasonable apprehension of immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement or restraint; or
    c. placing that person in reasonable apprehension that a family member will receive immediate or future bodily harm, sexual assault, confinement, or restraint.
14. Willful Deprivation: "Willful deprivation" means willfully denying a person who because of age, health or disability requires medication, medical care, shelter, food, therapeutic device, or other physical assistance, and thereby exposing that person to the risk of physical, mental or emotional harm, except with regard to medical care or treatment when the dependent person has expressed an intent to forego such medical care or treatment. This paragraph does not create any new affirmative duty to provide support to dependent persons.

RE: People v. CATHERINE TRECCIA
Case Number: 2025-DV-1080

Dear Daniel R Treccia

This letter is to inform you that the Kane County State's Attorney's office has received a police report in which you are listed as a victim of a violent crime. We have filed charges in this case. As a victim, we understand that you may have several questions regarding the criminal justice process.

You have certain constitutional rights that you may assert in court. Enclosed is the Notice of Victim's Assertion of Rights Form. If you choose to assert those rights, please check the applicable boxes, sign the form and return it to our office. The form will then be filed in the court file. Although you may return the form at any time, we ask that it be returned within 14 days from the date of mailing.

You can obtain court information and sign-up for court reminders on www.cic.co.kane.il.us or http://saopublic.co.kane.il.us/. This is a way for you to stay apprised of all court proceedings regarding the case. If the offender is in jail or prison, you can register for the Automated Victim Notification System at www.vinelink.com or call 1-866-566-8439. The notification system will notify you if there is a change in custody status. If you want to attend a remote hearing or view the available court livestreams https://www.KaneCourt.org then click on "Join Zoom Court" then click "Watch".

Your input regarding this case is very important. If your contact information changes, please contact this office immediately so we can update our records. If you have any medical bills or out-of-pocket expenses regarding this incident, this office can assist you with trying to obtain restitution or crime victim's compensation. Thank you for your cooperation.
